ECB Guidance on the Wearing of Cricket Helmets by Youth Players

In February 2015 the England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) issued updated safety guidance on the wearing of helmets by young players up to the age of 18. In brief, the guidance recommends that:

- Helmets with a faceguard or grille must be worn when batting against a hard cricket ball in matches and in practice sessions
- Youth players should regard a helmet with a faceguard as a normal item of protective equipment when batting, together with pads, gloves and, for boys, an abdominal protector (box)
- Youth wicket keepers must wear a helmet with a faceguard, or a wicketkeeper face protector when standing up to the stumps.

With the assistance of schools, cricket clubs and leagues, the wearing of helmets by youth players is now standard practice in cricket throughout England and Wales. Helmets are widely available and are covered by an updated British Standard (BS7928:2013). A face protector represents an alternative head protection system for youth wicket keepers. Wicketkeeper Face Protectors are covered by a new British Standard (BS 7928 – 2 :2009).

The ECB strongly recommends that wherever possible youth players use head protectors that have been tested against junior sized cricket balls.

Parental or guardian written consent allowing a youth player not to wear a helmet must not be accepted in any form of cricket. This guidance applies to all players up to the age of 18, both in senior cricket and in all youth cricket played with a hard cricket ball.

The guidance also applies during all practice sessions. Any individual taking responsibility for players must take all reasonable steps to ensure that this guidance is followed at all times.

The ECB asks that the guidance is communicated to the parents or guardians of all youth players through clubs and schools, and that youth players are not allowed to bat or stand up to the stumps when keeping wicket against a hard ball without wearing appropriate protection.

CHCC have a supply of helmets available for use for youth players for all matches and training sessions.
